

Steve Bartlett (Bassist)

Steve has been a mainstay of the Pacific Northwest music scene for many years. From 1971-1976 he performed with a number of Seattle bands including Good Blessing and Cheeseburger Deluxe. From 1977 to 1981 he played with the Cozzetti and Gimmill Jazz Quartet including Parnell's. He also played with the Jerry Miller Trio.

He is a 1979 graduate of Everett and Edmonds Community College. He recorded "Timeless" in 1981 with Cozzetti and Gimmill and you can read about the recording and his participation here: (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Cozzetti_%26_Gemmill). Steve also performed with other groups including Cara Clark Powers, Martin Salinas Trio, Sass, the Bartlett on Bass Jazz Quartet and he recorded and performed with Walter's Birthday and with several Hal Merrill Jazz Pedal Steel original compositions in 2018. He joined Black Satin in 2020 and he has been a wonderful addition to the band.
